INTRODUCTION:
The Four Systems of Higher Education in California

This introductory presentation highlights the four systems of higher education in California. Families/parents will learn the major differences between the four systems. We will review requirements and give tips on how families can best support their students as they apply for college.

A DEEPER DIVE:
CSU Spotlight.
Cal State L.A. A first-class university close to home.

A Cal State L.A representative* will discuss the degree programs and support systems available to students and families at Cal State L.A. We will dig into why Cal State L.A is a great post-secondary option for students.

AND/OR Community College.
Career Technical Education.
A hidden gem.

Thinking about joining the workforce? Our team will share information to help families understand the career education opportunities found at the CA Community Colleges. We will discuss the community college Bachelor's degree programs and spotlight 3 different CTE pathways.

HOW TO PAY FOR COLLEGE:
Financial Aid 101

The financial aid process can sometimes be challenging, but we have you covered! We will discuss the Studentaid.gov account (FSA ID) creation process, the different types of financial aid, and the difference between the two financial aid applications (FAFSA/CADAA).

IN CONCLUSION:
My child applied to college, now what?

Submitting college and financial aid applications is the first step, but there are other things to consider to be fully prepared for that first day of college. We will discuss how families can support students with their transition to college.
